POET'S CORNER.

OUR GIRLS. Our girls they are pretty,

And gentle and witty, As any the world ever knew; Talk not about Spanish, Circassian or Danish. Or Greeks, 'neath their summer skies blue; But give me our lasses,

Each to is like blossoms, Finch for swelling besom, As white as the high driven snow; With eyes softly flashing. Like spring bubbles dashing O'er hill rocks to valleys below; All smiling with heauty, All doing their duty,

Where shall we for lovelier go.

O, ours are the fairest, The sweetest, and rarest, The purest and fondest I see; Their hearts are the truest, Their eyes are the bluest. Their spirits so noble and free; O give me no other, True love, sister, mother, Our own are the chosen for me!
