

DOCTOR SHERMAN'S MEDICATED LOZENGES.

THIS is the most pleasant and agreeable way of taking medicine, particularly for children, as all the nauseousness is obviated and the active properties of the medicine highly concentrated. Care should be taken to keep all idea of medicine from the patient, particularly children, and to impress upon them the idea of the taking some delicate confection. All of Dr. Sherman's articles will have a fac-simile of his name accompanying them, without which none can be genuine—observe that it is on the bill of directions, around each box of Lozenges, pot of Tooth Paste, and on the back of every Poor Man's Plaster.

Sherman's Cough Lozenges are the safest, most sure and effective remedy for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, whooping cough, Asthma, Tightness of the lungs or chest, &c. &c.

Jonathan Howarth, Esq., the well known temperance lecturer, took a severe cold last January, by sleeping in damp sheets, that seemed to have settled in a consumption—He raised a great deal of bloody matter, and his cough was so incessant and harassing that he could get no rest by day or night. After trying various remedies without relief, he thought that death alone would relieve him from his misery. But, by the advice of a lady, he purchased a box of Sherman's Cough Lozenges; they gave him great relief, and to his surprise, his cough, which had been so long, and so distressing, now sleeps sound all night; three days' use of them made a new man of him, and he is recommending Sherman's Lozenges to all his acquaintances.

Sherman's Worm Lozenges Are the only infallible worm-destroying medicine ever discovered. 1,500,000 Boxes have been sold and not a failure has ever been known. They destroy all kinds of worms and cannot injure where there are none.

Symptoms of Worms.—Pain in the joints or limbs, offensive breath, picking at the nose, grinding of the teeth during sleep, and at times a paleness about the lips with flushed cheeks; bleeding at the nose, a gnawing sensation at the stomach, flashes of heat over the surface of the body, slight chills or shivings, headache, drowsiness, vertigo, torpor, disturbed dream, and starting in sleep with fright and screaming; sometimes a troublesome cough, feverishness, thirst, pallid hue, fits, bad taste in the mouth, difficult breathing, pain in the stomach or bowels, fatigue, nausea, squeamishness, voracious appetite, leanness, bloated stomach or limbs, gripings, shooting pains in various parts of the body, a sense of something rising in the throat, itching of the anus towards night, a frequent desire to pass something from the bowels, and sometimes discharges of slime and mucus.

Dr. Cullen Hunter, 108 Sixth Av. knew a child that was cured of fits by these Lozenges, after three years suffering, and when nothing else would give the least relief. He has used them in his practice for the last two years in several hundred cases, with success. A boy on board of one of the Havre Packets was cured of fits by only one dose of them.

Dressing Headaches are cured in five minutes by Sherman's Camphor Lozenges, so celebrated as the only specific for sea-sickness, palpitation, loquacity of spirit, the lassitude and fatigue of body or mind attending travelling, or crowded parties.

Weak Backs, Pain or weakness in any part of the body, rheumatism, and Lumbago, cured by Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster, which costs only 12¢ cents and warranted better than all others.

Sherman's Orris Tooth Paste is recommended by the many who have used it, as the best remedy for cleaning and beautifying the Teeth that ever was known. Together with the above Dr. has Restorative Lozenges for dysentery, diarrhoea &c. Fever and Azme Lozenges for Fever and Azme. Recommended by Rev. Prof. J. F. Mallin.—Dinner Lozenges for Dyspepsia, Cathartic Lozenges to operate on the Bowels &c. &c.

Beware of Imposition.—Ask for Sherman's Lozenges, and see that you get them; let no one deceive you by selling you a spurious article. Dr. Sherman's are the only true original and genuine.

A NEW ERA OF SHAKESPEARE IN AMERICA!

The Cheapest and most splendidly Illustrated and Illustrated Edition of the Bard of Avon ever published.

EDITED BY THE HON. GULIAN C. VERPLANCK.

ROBT. W. WIER, Esq., will design, select, and arrange the illustrations, of which there will be about 1400, executed on wood, in the very best style of the modern school of the art.

In submitting the Prospectus of the Edition to the public, the publisher has only to add that he will spare neither expense nor pains to make this edition of the World's Poet superior to any that has heretofore appeared—in illustrations, typography and paper. The form will be royal octavo, and will be issued in weekly parts, price 12¢ each, which places it within the means of persons of the most limited fortunes, whilst on account of its peculiar beauty it will gain itself admission into the libraries of the rich, and there prove to be one of the choicest ornaments.

Those who wish this work in the most perfect state will only be sure of it by taking the parts as they appear, which will contain the early proofs of the engravings.

The Tragedy of Hamlet is now in press. The first part will be issued in March.

PROSPECTUS.

The Pictorial and Illustrated edition of SHAKESPEARE, lately published in England, are amongst the most beautiful specimens of the recent and remarkable improvements of the art of wood engraving, which by combining great excellence of execution with economy of price, has given an unprecedented diffusion to the most useful as well as the most exquisite productions of the arts of Design.

The design of KENNY MEADOWS of 'Cycas' edition of Shakespeare express the character of the several personages, and the spirit of the scene, with wonderful truth and power; whilst the wood engraving of Knight's Pictorial edition combine with the highest merits of art and taste such a learned and minute accuracy as to scenery, costume, architecture and antiquity, as to make them a perpetual and most instructive commentary upon the Poet's text. It is now proposed to embody in an American edition, the admirable illustrations of both these editions, engraved with equal excellence of mechanical execution, to add to these, other engravings from eminent artists, as Reynolds, Fuseli, S. Newton, &c., and to accompany them with a beautifully printed and correct text.

But the publisher, anxious that his country should pay some part of the homage due to her to the greatest of Poets, as to one who belongs not solely to England, but to all who speak the tongue

That Shakespeare spake, could not content himself with a mere republication or compilation. He has therefore prevailed upon R. W. WIER, whose reputation as an Artist is already identified with his country's history, to contribute a series of original designs, together with such advice and assistance in other details of art as his taste may suggest for the illustration and embellishment of this publication. From the same reason the publisher, instead of reprinting the text in a desecrated and vulgar English impression, was desirous that his edition should have the supervision of an American editor. This task has been undertaken by GULIAN C. VERPLANCK.

The plan proposed to himself by the editor, to furnish the reader with a carefully prepared and accurately printed text, unembarrassed by any notes or comments upon the page itself; as however useful they may be elsewhere, they are too apt to divert the mind from the power of the Poet's thought, and to disturb the magic of his scene. Such notes as may be thought useful for the explanation or criticism of the text, will be thrown into an Appendix to each play.

The text of Shakespeare's dramatic works, drawn from old printed copies in his age, which had never passed under the author's own eye, was consequently disfigured by many errors and obscurities. It passed during the last century through a succession of varying editions until the revision of Stevens and Malone, whose text (or rather that of Stevens,) has become the standard from which most of the English and American editions have been printed, with various degrees of accuracy. But within the last twenty years a more minute and familiar acquaintance with old English idioms, habits and modes of thought, guided by an intense and constantly increasing admiration for Shakespeare's genius, has led to the strong conviction that very many of the numerous thoughtless deviations from the ancient text, and slight alterations in modern editions, are useless or erroneous interpolations, sometimes weakening the sense and often substituting an arbitrary and unauthoritative meaning for the Poet's own native melody. Accordingly, very many of these emendations have been rejected by the last and best English editors, especially Mr. Knight and Mr. Collier, and the readings of the old folios and quartos have been restored, unless where some error of the press or manuscript was undeniably manifest. Yet there are many such passages professedly corrupt, and requiring conjectural emendation; there are also differences of reading between the several old impressions, affording grounds for some diversity of text and warm controversy between the more recent editors.

Upon these, the American editor thinks it due to the character of this edition, to decide for himself without implicitly following the text of any one modern edition. As the industry and learning of prior editors have furnished the collation of various readings and the authorities upon which they may be supported, the task is no longer that of laborious investigation, but, as it were, of judicial decision enlightened by argument.

As many of these variations are of nearly equal probability, and as some of them are doubtless the author's own alterations at different periods, all the more important readings will be presented to the reader in the notes for his own selection. Those notes will also contain so much of commentary as may be useful to explain antiquated words and phrases, obscurely expressed passages, and allusions to obsolete opinions or the habits or history of the times; the whole in as condensed a form as practicable. But any commentary upon Shakespeare, however brief, would be imperfect if it did not present some view of the higher criticism employed, and upon the interpretation of his language, but upon his thoughts, his character, his poetry, his passions, philosophy. The only difficulty here arises from the abundance, the magnificent variety of the materials contributed by the last half century by the most brilliant minds of Europe. Still it is believed that this duty can be satisfactorily performed without swelling the edition to an inconvenient bulk.

NATURE'S OWN PRESCRIPTION

A compound Balsamic preparation of the Prunus Virginiana or "Wild Cherry Bark," prepared by a new chemical process, approved and recommended by the most distinguished physicians, and universally acknowledged the most valuable medicine ever discovered.

NO QUACKERY!!! NO DECEPTION

In setting forth the virtues of this truly great medicine, we have no desire to deceive those who are laboring under affliction, nor do we wish to enlarge it more than it justly deserves. Yet when we look around and see the vast amount of suffering and distress occasioned by many of the diseases in which this medicine has proved so highly successful, we feel that we cannot urge its claims too strongly, or say too much in its favor.—Such, indeed, are the SURPRISING VIRTUES Of this Balsam, that even in the advanced stages of CONSUMPTION, after all the most esteemed remedies of physicians have failed to effect any change, the use of this medicine has been productive of the most astonishing relief; and actually effected cures after all hopes of recovery had been despaired of. In the first stage of the disease, termed "Catarrhal Consumption," arising from neglected COLDS, it has been used with unexampled success; and hundreds acknowledge they owe the restoration of their health to this invaluable medicine alone. In that form of Consumption so prevalent amongst delicate young females, commonly termed debility, or "GOING INTO A DECLINE," a complaint with which thousands are lingering, it has also proved highly successful, and not only possesses the power of checking the progress of this alarming complaint, but also strengthens and invigorates the system more effectually than any other medicine we have ever possessed.

Important Caution.

The public should bear in mind that it is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry that performs these remarkable cures which are published in every part of the country, and not the articles of similar name that are occasionally put into temporary notice.—Those who may be good—but who know nothing about them.

Be sure and ask for "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and take none other. Agents.—In Easton, Dawson & Brother; Cambridge, Thos. M. Flint; Salisbury, P. Treadwell; Snow-hill, Townsend; P. Chesertown, Dailey & Russell, and in every town in the State. January 30, 1844.—6m

SHOUT ITS PRAISE! AND PROCLAIM IT TO THE WORLD!!!

WHAT is beneficial to the world in any shape or way, should be promulgated to the uttermost parts of the earth for good.

Whenever an important discovery in medical science takes place, it should be spread abroad at once. Such a discovery is found in Pease's Compound Extract of Hoarhound, for the cure of all diseases which arise from a chillsy system, and has proved itself of the utmost value to a discerning public. Formed of twenty-five different ingredients, each one of which is of the most valuable nature, in the cure of those primary diseases which terminate in Consumption.

All families are liable to have some portion of their members attacked at this season of the year, and they should be particularly on their guard. Children are very apt to be taken with a slight cold, to cease only in Croup or Scarlet Fever. At such times, a few sticks given according to the directions, would stop all fear for the future, because it would then be given in time. This is the grand secret, and should be remembered.

THE HOARHOUND EXTRACT has now been before the public for three years, and in that space of time, no medicine has ever equalled it in the amount of its sale or in the estimation in which it is held by the public.

Newark, Sept. 29, 1842

My Dear Sir:—I have been often afflicted with great exhaustion after exerting and fulfilling my duties and professional avocations, and never found any relief therefrom, until I met with your excellent Hoarhound Candy.

I have tried it on innumerable occasions, and believe it to be the best medicine compound extant, for healing and preserving the lungs from consumption in its early stages. Clergymen are more apt, from the nature of their profession, to be afflicted with hoarseness, which finally turns to Bronchitis; and I certainly believe that a free use of your Candy will keep away that complaint altogether. I recommend all my brethren to keep a few packages of your candy by them, and use it after speaking, and they will at once perceive its benefit.

Your friend truly, A. D. AYRES, D. D. Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, J. Pease & Sons, 45 Division Street.

NONE NEED DESPAIR.

This is to certify that I was three years afflicted with an inflammation of the lungs, and found no relief until I used Pease's Hoarhound Candy.

BENA. W. FRENCH, 28 Orchard st. I have used Pease's Hoarhound Candy in my family for coughs, colds, and hoarseness, with good satisfaction.
