THE APPEARANCE OF JUDGES OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

The Washington correspondent of the Clearland Plaindealer, who has lately been in the Supreme Court room at Washington, says: "First on the bench sat Clifford, fat and sleek, with no grey hairs, and weighing, I should judge, two hundred. Next, Grier, about the same size, and quite grey-haired; then Wayne, with light but not grey hair, and next McLean, with scarcely a white hair, though far advanced in age, looking hale and hearty, and of about two hundred pounds in weight. Next Catron, with silver hair; but not so large a man as McLean. Next Nelson, with whiskers from his ears round under his chin, and the only one who had a whisker. He would weigh one hundred and eighty, or more. Last Judge Campbell the only bald-headed man. He had silver side-locks, and is above medium size. Altogether, it is a weighty body. In front of the Judges' bench, (very fine arm chairs,) are the busts of the venerable Chief Justices Marshall, Rutledge, Jay and Ellsworth. The court room is small—not large enough to hold more than fifty persons."

A bill has been introduced in the Senate to incorporate the Southern Slaveholders' Insurance Company of Maryland. It empowers the company "to insure any person or persons, whether the same be residents of the State of Maryland or any other State, District or Territory of the United States, against any loss sustained by his, her or their slaves running away, absconding or escaping from his, her or their control, and such insurance shall be made at such rates and under regulations as may be determined upon by the board of directors of said company; and when a slave so insured shall run away, abscond or escape from the control of his or her owner or owners, it shall be the duty of said owner or owners to notify the company of such fact without delay, and said company shall be entitled to return said slave to the custody of his or her owner or owners within a reasonable time after such notification, or in default thereof shall pay to the owner or owners the value of said slave, as fixed by the policy of insurance, unless meanwhile by disease or injury the value of such slave shall have decreased, and in case of such disease or injury the value of such slave be, ascertained by arbitrator and appraisal."

A Dutchman having a friend hung in this country, wrote to his friends informing them that after addressing a large meeting of citizens, the scaffold on which he stood gave way, owing to which he fell and broke his neck.

The time of holding the Republican Convention at Chicago has been changed from the 13th of June, to Wednesday, the 16th of May.

How JOHN HICKMAN has concluded to return to Washington, and left West Chester on Monday. He manifestly begins to realize that he is of no trifling consequence to the people, and that if he falls drops his bottle he'll be sure to break it.

What makes all these prophetic shops have some flowers? said Billy to Sam, as they stood at the counter. "Don't you know, Billy? It's so that if a fellow drops his bottle he'll be sure to break it."

The wheel of fortune belonged originally to an omnibus, for it is engaged continually "taking up" and "putting down" people.

A lawyer, on his passage from Europe, observed a shark, and asked a sailor what it was, who replied, "Here we call 'em sea lawyers!"

An artist painted a cow and cabbage so natural that they had to be separated—the cow having commenced eating the cabbage.

"It is all around my hat," as the hypocrite said when he put on mourning for his deceased wife.

A lazy man works harder every day of his life than a laborer. The laborer has his task before him, and goes at it; the lazy man has his behind him, and can't get at it.

Dissolution of Partnership. THE partnership heretofore existing under the style of Tilghman & Foreman for the purpose of conducting the freighting business is this day dissolved by mutual consent. E. T. M. Foreman is authorized to settle the business of the old firm.

The Freighting Business. THE customers of Tilghman and Foreman and the public generally are informed, that I shall continue the above business and devote my entire energies and attention to it. My vessel will make weekly trips to Baltimore for the purpose of freighting grain and other produce and bringing back freight. Thankful for the custom bestowed on the old firm, a liberal share of patronage is solicited.

DYSPEPSIA.

There is perhaps no disease which destroys the happiness and comfort of individuals, and families to the same extent as Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Previously to the discovery of the OXYGENATED BITTERS, There existed no medicine accessible to those suffering from this wide spread disease, which relieved it in any marked degree. The power of these Bitters over the above named disease as well as over all those having their origin in imperfect digestion, and functional diseases of the stomach, as well as Asthma and General Debility is beyond all question. Its speedy and permanent cures of the severest and stubborn cases on record is sufficient confirmation of this fact. Copy of a Letter from a School Teacher in Detroit.

Detroit Mich., June 16, 1857. Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston. In reference to the OXYGENATED BITTERS, I can say, that after having the Dyspepsia for several months, and almost dying with pain and heaviness in my stomach, I was prevailed upon by a friend who had been cured by the same medicine to try a bottle of Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Before using half a bottle I felt greatly relieved, and by the time I used two bottles and a half I was entirely well, and still remain so. I know of several cases more distressing even than my own, which have been entirely cured by this invaluable medicine; and it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to any and all who may be suffering from this dreadful malady. W. A. BACON, Teacher of Detroit Select School. Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE, & Co., Boston, and for sale by Hopper & Wilmer, Centerville; George DeRochebrune, Queenstown; J. R. Hopkins, Wye Mills; Robert K. Wilson, Church Hill; M. Price, Long Marsh; John Lee, Sudlersville; J. P. Star Templeville; and by dealers everywhere. Feb. 28, 1850.

BRYAN'S AGRICULTURAL MUD LIFTER.

Worked by two horses and will raise 15 Cart Loads per hour, only requiring one man to operate it.

A Strong and Durable Machine, which can be worked by ordinary Farm Hands.

THE purpose of this machine is to raise the deposit from the bottom of ravines, coves creeks, rivers or other places inaccessible to teams. This Machine raises the mud, brings it on shore, deposits into a hopper, under which a cart can be driven, and receives its load by means of a slide moved by the driver, by which all labor of shoveling is avoided. The bucket is made of the best boiler iron, and is so constructed that it dumps the mud into the hopper, and by reversing the capstan, adjusts itself and is carried out for another load. By referring to a drawing and clear explanations sent with each machine any ordinary carpenter can put one up without difficulty. But a few pieces of roughly hewn timber are required for the frame. Everything else complete with chain and rope enough to send the bucket 170 feet from the capstan, is furnished in Baltimore for the sum of $225 cash. All orders promptly attended to, or information given at Larabee's Foundry, Cor. Front and Plumbeem Streets, BALTIMORE MD. BRYAN & BROTHER. Feb. 21, 1850—1v.

CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKEY.

THE enterprising proprietor of CUES NUT GROVE WHISKEY, (the purest medicinal agent ever known,) has furnished the community a stimulant, pure, healthful and invigorating, at the same time a mild and delicious beverage. It is calculated to do away with the vile drugged stuff that is palmed off upon the community, and which is injurious to body and mind. In addition to the certificates beneath, he has received a diploma from the State Agricultural Society, and additional testimony from Dr. Jackson, of Boston who testifies under oath to its absolute purity. Philadelphia, Sep. 9th, 1858. We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the poisonous substance known as Fusil Oil which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskeys in general use. Booth, GARREA & CAMAC, Analytical Chemist, New York, Sept. 23, 1858. I have analyzed a sample of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, received from Charles Wharton, Jr. of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whiskey. JAMES R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist, Boston, March 7th, 1859. I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this whiskey is derived from the grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer, No. 16, Boylston Street. For sale by C. WHARTON, Jr., Sole Principal Agent, No. 116 Walnut St. Philadelphia. Jan. 24, 1850.

BRIDLES, Bricol Reins,

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN Stereoscopic Emporium.

E. ANTHONY, 308 Broadway New York. After May 1st 1850, at 501 Broadway two doors from the St. Nicholas Hotel, The Stereoscopic is the most instructive, interesting, entertaining, amusing and exciting of modern inventions. None are too young, none too old, none too intelligent, none too uneducated, to acknowledge its worth and beauty. No home is complete without it, and it must and will penetrate everywhere. It presents to your view every part of the world in all the relief, boldness, perspective and sharpness of detail, as if you were on the spot. Photographers are everywhere exploring Europe, Asia, Africa and America, in search of the grand and the beautiful, and the result of their skill are constantly enriching our stock. We have an immense variety of paper views of Scenes in Paris, London, England, Ireland, Wales, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Spain, The Rhine, Versailles, St. Cloud, Fontainebleau, Tulleries, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Athens, the Holy Land, China, India, Crystal Palace, also Groups Historical, amusing marriage scenes, breakfast scenes, pic-nics, statuary, &c. An exquisite assortment of Illuminated Interiors of Palaces, Churches and Cathedrals of France, Italy, &c. The effect of these illuminated views is most remarkable. EVERY GENTLEMAN OF WEALTH AND REFINED TASTE should have in his drawing room some of our exquisite views on glass, with a revolving stereoscope, showing 12, 25, 50 or 100 scenes. Nothing can be more fascinating, and one can offer no greater treat to a friend fond of the picturesque and the beautiful. Anthony's Instantaneous Stereoscopic Views are the latest Photographic wonder. They are taken in the flash of an eye, and everything that may be depicted as sharply and distinctly as if it had been perpetually at rest. This gives an additional value, for to the beauties of inanimate nature it adds the charm of life and motion. The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris large orders for Anthony's Instantaneous Views of American life and scenery. Among other things we have just published Stereoscopic Illustrations of the Scene of the FELTON STREET PRAYER MEETINGS, in which many hearts feel an interest. The particulars of this will be found in our catalogue. Our Catalogue of subjects and prices will be forwarded to any address on receipt of a stamp. Parties at a distance sending us $3, $5, 10, $15, $20, or $25 can have a good instrument and such pictures as they may request, sent by Express. Views alone, (without instrument) can be sent by mail. Parties who wish to be advised of every thing really valuable in the line that comes out, may send us their names to place on record, and we will keep them posted at our own expense. Men of leisure will find Photography a most fascinating and delightful amusement. We are prepared to fit out amateurs with everything necessary for their success together with instructions "How to take Stereoscopic Pictures." E. ANTHONY, Importer and Manufacturer of Photographic Materials, Stereoscopes and Stereoscopic Views. Merchants from every section of the country are respectfully invited to make an examination of our stock as our discount to the trade will be liberal.
