

BY THOMAS J. KEATING.

CENTREVILLE, MD.

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 10, 1860

THE CROPS.—The past winter and early part of the present spring have been severe upon the wheat crop in this neighborhood.

HON. HOWELL COBB.—The Hon. Howell Cobb, in withdrawing his name as a candidate for the Presidency, says he does this to secure union and harmony among the Democratic party.

THE CHARLESTON CONVENTION.—This body which will convene on the 23rd of April instant, will consist of 303 members, as follows:

Meeting of the Democratic National Committee.—WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Democratic National Committee met here this morning, pursuant to the recent call.

Rhode Island Elections.—PROVIDENCE, April 6, P. M.—Complete returns of the election in this State yesterday give the following result on the Governor's vote: Sprague, conservative; 12,295; Padelford, republican, 10,835; scattering votes 153.

The Connecticut Elections.—HARTFORD, Conn., April 4.—The returns from every town in the State give Buckingham, (rep.,) for Governor, a majority of 536 votes.

Tom Sayers the English Champion, has been engaged by an American speculator to give a series of exhibitions in the principal cities in the United States; immediately after the fight with Heenan.

(From the Wilkes' Spirit of the Times.)

LETTER FROM TOM SAYERS. NEWMARKET, March 12.

To George Wilkes, Esq., Proprietor of "Wilkes' Spirit of the Times." DEAR SIR:—Since I had the pleasure of meeting you at the Gordon Hotel, in London, last Monday, it has struck me that you would not perhaps consider it lost time, after having come so far to look after the "big match" you made between Heenan and me, just to run down here and see how I go on with my training, and to have, if you like an hour or two's walk with me.

"This morning, as the Hon. Van Wyck, of New York, was emerging from the National, having taken his maternal repast, with a newspaper in his hand, he met his "honorable colleague" from Arkansas.

A few days since two of the "Honorable" at Washington had a slight altercation on the street, to which a correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer thus alludes:—"This morning, as the Hon. Van Wyck, of New York, was emerging from the National, having taken his maternal repast, with a newspaper in his hand, he met his "honorable colleague" from Arkansas.

A FIGHTING COUNTRY.—A citizen of Memphis, Tenn., has just returned from a trip to Arkansas, and tells the following which will convey an idea of how they do up matters in that State.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

Mr. J. Armstrong, of Kent county, Md., has received a letter from one of his slaves who runaway to Canada two years ago. He begs his master to forgive him, and entreats him to send him sufficient money to return, promising hereafter to serve him faithfully as a slave.

WM. C. GIBSON, General Agent and Collector, KENT ISLAND.

QUEEN ANN'S COUNTY MARYLAND. Particular attention given to the Sale of either Personal or Real Estate. References: Dr. R. W. Erickson, Kent Island; Madison Brown, Centreville; Major James Merrick; T. T. Martin & Brother, Baltimore; William H. Owens, Thomas Morris, April 10, 1860—v.

FOR SALE. A COUNTRY RESIDENCE located on Kent Island Queen Ann's county Md., containing about 4 ACRES OF LAND.

A Two Story FRAME DWELLING, newly new, and all necessary out buildings, such as Barn, Stable, Carriage house, Wood house &c. Has also a fine young and thriving PEACH ORCHARD.

The above will soon be enclosed entirely with a new board fence. The land is highly improved. Good water, convenient to churches, schools, and steamboat. For further particulars apply or address W. C. GIBSON, General Agent and Collector, Broad Creek Md. April 10, 1860.

Sheriff's Sale. BY virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Circuit Court for Queen Ann's county and to me directed at the suit of Thomas H. Baynard against the goods and chattels lands and tenements of Robert C. Baynard and Robert J. H. Baynard, I have seized and taken in execution and will offer at public sale on TUESDAY, the 1st day of May next, between the hours of 12 o'clock M and 4 o'clock P. M. in front of the Court House in the town of Centreville the following property to wit:

1 Black Horse, 1 Brown Horse, 1 Sorrel Horse, 1 Large Wagon and Gear, 1 Negro Boy, and a TRACT OF LAND, containing about 300 ACRES OF LAND MORE OR LESS, adjoining the lands of Doctor Walter S. Turpin and James P. Earle, in the third Election District of Queen Ann's county. The improvements consist of a two story Brick Building and good out buildings. Seized and taken to satisfy said writs, debt interest and cost due and to become due thereon, and will be sold for the same on the above mentioned day for cash. J. R. STORY, Sheriff Queen Ann's county. April 10, 1860—tds. ($3.75)

Sheriff's Sale. BY virtue of three writs of Fieri Facias issued out of the Circuit Court for Queen Ann's county and to me directed two at the suit of Wm. H. Owens and one at the suit of B. B. Perkins against the goods and chattels lands and tenements of Samuel L. Primrose, I have seized and taken in execution and will offer at public sale, in front of the Court House in the town of Centreville, on TUESDAY the 1st day of May next, between the hours of 12 and 4 o'clock the following property to wit: 200 ACRES OF LAND MORE OR LESS, whereon the said Samuel Primrose now resides adjoining the lands of Wm. T. Primrose and the Rolph Tract, situated in the 2nd Election district of Queen Ann's county. The improvements are a two story frame dwelling and good out buildings, also 2 Horses, 3 HEAD OF CATTLE, 1 CARRIAGE AND HARNESS, 1 WAGON AND GEAR.

Seized and taken to pay and satisfy said writs debt interest and cost due and to become due thereon, and will be sold for the same on the above mentioned day for cash. J. R. STORY, Sheriff Queen Ann's county. April 10, 1860—tds. ($3.75)

Sheriff's Sale. BY virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Circuit Court for Queen Ann's county and to me directed at the suit of Goodhand Tucker and Smith against the goods and chattels lands and tenements of Elijah Pierce, I have seized and taken in execution and will offer at public sale, in front of the Court House in the town of Centreville, on TUESDAY the 1st day of May next, between the hours of 12 o'clock M. and 4 o'clock P. M., the following property of Elijah Pierce: A LOT OF GROUND improved by dwelling and Store, situated in Suddersville in said county. Seized and taken to pay and satisfy said writs, debt, interest and cost due and to become due thereon, and will be sold for the same on the above mentioned day for cash. J. R. STORY, Sheriff Q. A. County. April 10, 1860—tds. [$2.50]

Fence Notice. NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested, that the undersigned intends, six months after the date of this notice, to discontinue the division fence between his land and the land belonging to the heirs of the late Bennett Downs, deceased. VACHEL DOWNS, April 10, 1860—tds.

NOTICE. FREIGHT on grain to Baltimore after the first day of March, four cents per bushel. A. S. GODWIN, Feb. 28, 1860—tds.

NOTICE. I have leased the warehouse at Spenser's Landing, and am now receiving grain there. The schooner Helen M'ear Capt. Osborn, will leave the wharf every Tuesday for Baltimore. W. F. PARROTT, Dec. 6, 1859—tds. A. S. GODWIN.

NOTICE. THE Vendue notes given by purchasers at the sale of the personal property belonging to the estate of George C. Palmer deceased, are now due and prompt payment is earnestly requested. W. F. PARROTT, March 20, 1860—tds. Executor.

NOTICE To Merchants, Traders, Ordinary Keepers and others.

ALL persons and bodies corporate or politic in Queen Ann's county, who are or shall be doing any act or thing, or shall be in the occupation of any house or place for any purpose for which a license is made necessary by the License Law of Maryland, are hereby warned to obtain a license or renew the same, between the 1st and 10th day of May ensuing, under the penalties prescribed by said Law for the infraction thereof.

The law does not authorize any person or persons except the manufacturer to sell or barter goods, wares or merchandise, without first having obtained a license from the Clerk of the Circuit Court. J. R. STORY, Sheriff Queen Ann's County, April 10, 1860—tds 10.

Notice to Creditors, Estate of Henry E. Wright deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphan's Court of Queen Ann's county; letters of Administration on the personal estate of Henry E. Wright, late of said county deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased's estate are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the vouchers therefor to the subscriber on or before the 10th day of October 1860, otherwise they may by law be excluded from all benefit of said deceased personal estate. Given under my hand this 27th day of March 1860.

CHARLOTTE WRIGHT, Administratrix of H. E. Wright decd.

For Sale. A BUGGY WAGON, nearly new, city made, apply to JOHN PALMER, April 10, 1860—tds. Agent.

PUBLIC SALE. BY virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court for Queen Ann's county, the undersigned will sell at public sale at the late residence of John Palmer deceased in Centreville, on Thursday the 12th day of April last, a valuable assortment of Household and Kitchen Furniture; ALSO A YORK WAGON AND HORSE.

Terms:—A credit of six months upon note with approved security. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock A. M. JAS. B. PALMER, JOHN PALMER, April 3, 1860—tds.

Notice. THE undersigned have associated themselves together under the style of PARROTT & KEATING, for the purpose of conducting the mercantile business at the stand formerly occupied by Wm. F. Parrott in Centreville, and solicit a share of the public patronage. Wm. F. Parrott returns his thanks to his old customers for past favors and asks for a continuance of their custom in behalf of the new firm. W. F. PARROTT, W. D. KEATING, April 3, 1860—tds.

COUNTY SCHOLARSHIP NOTICE. BY order of the Orphan's Court for Queen Ann's county, notice is hereby given that applications, for a scholarship in Washington College, (according to a resolution passed by the General Assembly of Maryland, February 17th 1848,) will be received until the 1st Wednesday in May next, at the Register's office, at which time the Court will proceed to make a selection. W. A. JOHNSON, Register Wills for Q. A. County, April 3, 1860—tds.

BALTIMORE SOUTHERN JOBBING HOUSE. Brogans, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Straw Goods, ON THE NETT CASH SYSTEM. R. B. GRIFFIN & SONS, A REMOVED offering great inducements to CASH BUYERS. We have spared no pains in getting up a magnificent stock of goods, and can with confidence call the particular attention of dealers to the splendid assortment as well as to the unprecedented low prices, at which they are now selling them. We have adopted the cash system, with small profits, and no risk, believing it to be demanded by this large class of dealers. Its freedom from losses, and the low prices at which we are selling, must attract and secure this trade. All we ask is an examination of Stock and Prices, and we will guarantee sales in every instance, at No. 17 South Charles Street, (up Stairs.) R. B. GRIFFIN & SONS, March 27, 1860—2tds.

Notice to Stockholders. THE stockholders of the Maryland and Delaware Rail Road Company are hereby notified that a call has been made upon the stock subscriptions for the purpose of a vigorous prosecution of the work, as follows: Upon the original subscriptions the sum of five dollars per share, being the remaining installment; and upon all the other subscriptions the sum of five dollars per share—to be paid on the 1st day of May next; and upon the last named subscriptions the further sum of five dollars per share each month, payable on the 1st day of June, July, August and September respectively. BY ORDER, I. C. W. POWELL, Secretary, April 3, 1860—3tds.

NOTICE. I have leased the warehouse at Spenser's Landing, and am now receiving grain there. The schooner Helen M'ear Capt. Osborn, will leave the wharf every Tuesday for Baltimore. W. F. PARROTT, Dec. 6, 1859—tds. A. S. GODWIN.

NOTICE. THE Vendue notes given by purchasers at the sale of the personal property belonging to the estate of George C. Palmer deceased, are now due and prompt payment is earnestly requested. W. F. PARROTT, March 20, 1860—tds. Executor.

NOTICE. I have leased the warehouse at Spenser's Landing, and am now receiving grain there. The schooner Helen M'ear Capt. Osborn, will leave the wharf every Tuesday for Baltimore. W. F. PARROTT, Dec. 6, 1859—tds. A. S. GODWIN.

NOTICE. THE Vendue notes given by purchasers at the sale of the personal property belonging to the estate of George C. Palmer deceased, are now due and prompt payment is earnestly requested. W. F. PARROTT, March 20, 1860—tds. Executor.

NOTICE. I have leased the warehouse at Spenser's Landing, and am now receiving grain there. The schooner Helen M'ear Capt. Osborn, will leave the wharf every Tuesday for Baltimore. W. F. PARROTT, Dec. 6, 1859—tds. A. S. GODWIN.

NOTICE. THE Vendue notes given by purchasers at the sale of the personal property belonging to the estate of George C. Palmer deceased, are now due and prompt payment is earnestly requested. W. F. PARROTT, March 20, 1860—tds. Executor.

NOTICE. I have leased the warehouse at Spenser's Landing, and am now receiving grain there. The schooner Helen M'ear Capt. Osborn, will leave the wharf every Tuesday for Baltimore. W. F. PARROTT, Dec. 6, 1859—tds. A. S. GODWIN.