

1812-13

Senate 1813

1. An extra session of the General Assembly ^{was} proclaimed by the governor and met 17 May 1813. because of the "large naval force within the Chesapeake and the wanton destruction of our houses and other property by the squadron of the enemy". Legislation was passed for the militia and defence.