

24 January 1827

a bill entitled an act to abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of gov^t as relate to the time and manner of electing the senate, and the mode of filling up vacancies in that body, so that each county and Balt. City may have a senator, to be elected immediately by the people. 1st reading (The mode of changing election of Senate was accomplished in 1836)