

change of rules requires 2/3

Add. Rules adopted 27 Jan 1827:

There shall be a standing committee of the whole house on the condition of the State, which may originate bills or resolutions and may sit when required by 7 members.

All bills of a private or local character, received from the Senate shall be referred to a select committee of three members, to be appointed by the Speaker; and bills of a public or general character, received from the Senate, relating to subjects upon which committees have been appointed, shall be referred, severally, to the committee to which the same shall belong. respectively.