

the longer he lives with you the better - satisfied he will be to remain -

The truth is I am too poor at present to bestow my fine young Bull as a present - nor would I part with him except that my large cow brought me another Bull Calf last Dec^r by the same Bull. and which is equally promising with the one you have seen.

I will let you have the black
- the oldest for $40 - or I will let you have the cow & the calf now with her for $50 - If you should send for either

I will make you a present of a fine Ram Lamb of the Dutch breed & if you will take 4 or 5 Ewes without Lambs. fit to breed from. and to accompany the Ram Lamb up - you shall have them at $2.50 each - one will not drive conveniently -

The Dutch Ram I have. the father of the Lamb I mention - weighed with his knee on last Month 204^{lbs}. & his knee upwards of 9^{ft}.
