

P<sup>r</sup> Sir I have taken the liberty of enclosing you a letter to a person in Philadelphia it is concerning a young man who left this Town about 9 years ago, his friends have not heard from him since his arrival there & if you would take the trouble of sending the enclosed letter to Philadelphia, to the owner of <sup>the</sup> ship to which he belonged, & if you get an answer, if you w<sup>d</sup> enclosed it, with some of your next letters, you will oblige extremely

Yours with respect

W. M. Carleton

Perth 12 July 1841