

Dear Sir

Thinking Worthy would not be able to walk from Westminster I hired a horse for him which must be returned in the morning - There are 2 great coats and 2 pair of Boots left at Shrivens which I wish you would direct Jack to bring, if it should not be convenient for him to come this way - He had better call here, however, and I will give him a letter to Shrivens, to forward Worthy's trunk -

Yrs Truly

W. B. Reid

Runny Med