

Mons. L. Lacoste

FRENCH AND SPANISH Languages.

MONSIEUR LAURENT LACOSTE,

A native of France, and Professor of the Languages above mentioned, proposes to give instruction in FRENCH and SPANISH, to all who may be desirous of becoming acquainted with these fashionable and highly useful Languages. His system of Oral instruction is the same followed in the best Institutions of France.

Such persons as have previously taken lessons in French, and who wish to become more familiar with French Literature, will immediately commence an analysis of several promiscuous pieces, selected from the best French authors, both in verse and prose.

The course will consist of twelve weeks—three lessons each week.

TERMS:

French Course,	-	-	-	-	$6.
Spanish do.	-	-	-	-	$6.

☞ Monsieur LACOSTE may be found at the house of Miss Miller, where he will be happy to see all who may be desirous of making themselves acquainted with the merits of his system.

J'ai tout reçu, Monsieur,
et je vous remercie mille et mille
fois de votre complaisance.

Je vais à Baltimore,

Monsieur
Barnes
