

Dear Father York ~~Pa~~ March 8 1814

I received your letter by C and letters Eggs and Chickens by learning to make shoes I did not intend to turn shoemaker it was only that I could save you the expence of buying them for the family, I have now got a Master for the vicar but have not got a violin as yet I am very sorry to hear of Uncle's death but I know he is happy Will Aunt Remain in town or live with Mr. Maynes Mr. Johnson has got 3 bushels of Clover seed at 8¢ but as you have got some ^{he} need not send it I wish you could have let Mptan come with Charles I must write in a hurry as it is 11 o'clock. I think you ought to have give Charles a pair trial for any Dog will eat a dead sheep when he can find it and if he had killed it he would have cut its throat. I had bespoke a Bull Dog pup, but I will not have him now I am cylindering in Compound Interest. We are got in Cicero in letters if you have one please send it to me as if not must I buy and the price is 3 Give my love to Mr. New's family and ours I remain your affectionate son I directed my letter to C Birnie to Mr. J. and then to home
