Dear Sir,

you will much oblige me by remitting the amount of the above ac as soon as you can, as I really am in want of every dollar I can master — The tickets must remain over until the drawing commences in our next — We are not determined yet on the Western journey, but are more likely to remain here — I intend selling off next week — It would not be convenient for Northy, at all events, to remain with us after the 24th inst to which day I have made his Bill — I shall probably
