

Dear Father

Baltimore March 14th 1844

I received your letter this morning By Lutz I went to Mr Woolley He told me to call at 2 in the time, which I did He not being in & Lutz going out of town & being exceedingly drunk I thought it would be better for me to let him go & I will forward it to Union town I suppose you may send them on Sunday which will be as soon as if Lutz had taken it. I called on Mr Brown the Belvidera is arrived & they are not sure whether she will go to Liverpool or to Cork for orders however as I told him you would be in town next week he said he would know which of the two she would go again then. I suppose you have received my letter of the 12th. Mr G writes you. Clover seed is from $11 a 11th I enclose a card of Mrs Grims hawes Give my Love to my Mother Uncle & all the family I remain your affectionate son
