

on them, what is poor old L. Harlan doing, I am very anxious about him

I am so warm I can scarcely hold my pen what would I give for one charming Bruce of my beloved Country - with love to all the family

I remain Dear Sir
Your ever affectionate

Gettysburg
July 1820

J. A. Harlan