Baltimore Feby. 28th 1826

Mr. C. Birnie

Dear Sir, Yours of the 26th inst. I received from Williamsburg. My opinion respecting flour is that it cannot be lower, the great demands for Money is principally the cause of the present low prices, but should it come to your Limits I will pay it to your Credit. Please give My kind love to Mrs Birnie & the family wishing you all health & happiness

I remain Yours Respectfully

Dear Sir

I have just seen the one enclosed in the National Intelligencer. If you feel disposed to go down I will accompany you. There is a road across the country from this place, and I am told it can be made in a day easily.

Respectfully

My Dear Sir

After every threatening walk I got here on the 23 Ult. and found all well, they had not heard any thing of my arrival on this County till I walked in, which I did not tell you we the agreable surprise the family felt well. I am only sorry we this Post is recovered, and down Stairs In Consequence of Matilda's removal from Mrs Longwell, it put one to some little expence & trouble had Matilda been there, I think I should have made a trial of what I was speaking about. however I now am of opinion all is for best. at least we must think so. Matilda & Miss M. Hanson are going to Petersburg York Springs. to procure a House that will
