Dear Sir

With unfeigned sorrow I must inform you that Mr. P. is not yet able to put on all his clothes himself and the swelling still continues in his fingers so as prevent him wearing his more than to sign his name when neces-ary. All this does not prevent him joying in your joy - and it must create a very happy feeling to the farmer to have all his crops properly cut and put up in safety - He desires me to say that he has got the best part of
