Baltimore, and if left at the Cattle yard - at the three Pegs, high up in Pratt Street - giving notice of their arrival to Sinclair & Moore - they will forward them on to me by the Steam Boat, or Packet - I have had the Porch made to your House and painted but have not yet got the Bill of cost - Mr. Duke D. has not yet brought his Family - he has, on the strength of the $50 = allowed out of the Rent, had a Man employed in Painting some of the rooms, and White washing - This looks as if he means to keep the House in good order -

We have had a troublesome Harvest - one or two Days' Dry and fair or five raining - however - I hope what we lose in the Wheat, we shall gain in the growth of corn Tobacco - and pasture -

I am glad to say we are all well - Mrs. Maynadier & Eliza join in friendly respects to Mrs. Bonnie yourself & Family - with y.rs truly -

Henry Maynadier -
