

Tuesday April 15th

Rained a little this morning but the Sun is shining very pretty now. All that remains of Mr. G.
Shurt. are to be buried this evening. Pa is to act as ~~one~~ of the pall bearers. He died quite suddenly, on Sunday morning.

The English frigate, Race - still lies in the harbor - I believe she is to stay here untill June.

Wednesday 16th April.

A lovely day; wind blowing from the South and the air is laden with health inspiring freshness. Mama has a dreadful cold, has had it for some time; this morning she was quite sick
