

quite unwell all day - very weak, with a bad pain in my side.

Sunday. 21th May. A beautiful day, wind blowing from the South, very pleasant. I have not been to church to-day. I have not had my spring barnett fixed yet, therefore could not go. Evening 10 1/2 o clock. Ned and Mart have just left here, they came down quite early this evening. Mart has not been here before for a monthth he has changed a great deal since I saw him last. He looks thin and pale, and was not lively
