

left Sue, and I took a walk, as it had stopped raining for a little while. when we got around by Jim H's store we saw Ned and M- standing at M's store door, and for fear- that they would join us we went up Cornhill St, up by the post Office, down Main St and home again. Aunt Sarah and Mr J. were here to-night. Ma walked home with Sue, the old-lazy-bones did not come after her. Friday night the clock. It has been a lovely

Clothing

Houseware

Queensware

Books

Dr