

among some books I told him to go get it but he would not so off I started to get it myself, but he would not let me; when we were ready to leave he thought I had forgotten it, but I again started to get it, when he pulled me back and went himself, and put it in its place; we then started for home, and what was our surprise to see the car pass us; we did not know it was so late; it was then 9 o'clock, and quite ten when we got home, we had a delightful walk; it was our last Jan left on Saturday, and Al today, I don't know how we are to get on without him; I set down to night and ~~my~~ wrote to Al, telling him what we had been doing since he left; Coy Mag B. and Mrs Bonnell were here this afternoon, I was at Aunt Annie's Mrs B. called there also.
I stayed to tea at Aunt A's, it was so lonesome after Al left I could not stay at home, well I think I have written enough for one day's history.

Oct 17th Tuesday night 11 o'clock, O, what a dreary day I have had of it, when I went down to breakfast this morning I missed Al so much. Ma and Nan went out shopping this morning and left me at home to see about dinner, which kept me quite
