

(another of Grandpa's favorites) and Grand ma to live with us. Tom soon died - we became reconciled to his new home in '64.
Grandma died, and Peggie was left, the sole ~~representative~~ survivor of all the dear old place; he was almost human in his instincts,
of a very gentle nature, and a splendid mouse.
Hence our regret at his death. ~~Peg~~

Peace to his ashes. July 28, '67.
