

low enough to do any ugly trick; but a few more days and I hope the Confederate boys will pounce down upon them like enraged tigers.
Oh! if I was a man would I not stir them up?
John and Joe K. were down here last evening and stuck until quite late. John leaves for home on Monday. Sunday morning June 2. Most has been released, was released yesterday evening, and a short time after he left for the country. I expect he has gone out to his brother. The weather is lovely morning; calm and tranquil and more quiet than it has been for some Sundays. Sunday June 3. Knighton has just left here. He came to bid us good-bye. He thinks of coming down again this summer.
