Chesterfield Manor Sunday April 23rd 1861

Dear Ella.

I wrote you Friday, on board the boat and gave uncle John the letter to deliver. I hope you received it? We did not get up to this harbor until daylight, Friday morning. We did not come ashore until late in the evening, and I tell you I was glad to get on terra firma once more, and I wish you all were over here. We have a very large brick house with a handsome park, and garden plenty ground all round. This place, was once owned by Col Nicholson's Father, is now owned by a Mr Newman, there is a Mr Goldborough living in one end of the house, and we have the other, we pay $8 a month so you may judge what it is. the people we are living with are very nice sociable people. and have a piano, just that
