

James Adams non Ejus

THE INVOLUNTARY INCONSTANT. IS

Annietta Maria Thompson

LETTER IV.

FROM MISS FRANCFORT TO MISS SUTTON.

I Will own, Emily, that you help me sometimes to develope this heart of mine, which I am often afraid myself to penetrate too deeply into; but you were, indeed, too severe in your last. Suppose I should allow, that it was not so much the loss of my cousin, as the unfortunate circumstance which occasioned that loss to be the cause of my grief; can it thence be inferred, that I would