FROM MR. CHARLES FRANCFORT TO
SIR GEORGE GRANDON, BART.

AND so, Sir George, you want to know how I like being house-keeper to Sir Gregory; you think I might as well be the ancient gentlewoman that locks up his china, and carries his keys. Why, faith, the silence and solemnity that reign here, cast a pretty great damp upon my spirits; but the old gentleman is so very good humored—it is rather injuring
