172 THE INVOLUNTARY INCONSTANT.

L E T T E R   X X X V I I I .

FROM LORD ROBERT FILLIGARD TO LADY FRANCES FILLIGARD,

AND so you don't like a lodging, Lady Fanny, otherwise you would not give sixpence to go to Sir Matthew Eaton's. I lament that I am not of your cabinet cotincil, for I would wish to consult where we should all meet to pass agreeably a few days,
for I am so happy as to have heard from the Marquis, who, although he has
