

remainder of your days in so charming a retreat, with so good a man as Mr. Otley, who will study your happiness equally with

Your dutiful and

Affectionate Daughter,

EMILY OTLEY.

P. S. There are more weddings going forward; the Marquis is very happy with the news that his friend, (indeed the friend to us all) Lord Robert Filligard, is going to be married to Miss Eaton; as is Sir Matthew Eaton to Lady Frances Filligard. I tell you this, because I know you are an advocate for cross-matches.
