pleasure of coming on, but Capt D will send me word by Thursdays boat, whether he telegraphed to you, and on Friday morning I will be at the boat; now see if you get the telegraph sit-right down and write me a letter, and I will get it before I start for the boat; and if you do get the telegraph be sure and come, for if you do not I shall be awfully disappointed that I will not know what to do; I wrote you on Sund Monday and I suppose by this time you have received it.

Capt D says there is no trouble about getting the pass, but that Mr Shreves must be there to make it out, so dont worry yourself about that, but be all ready to leave the morning after you receive the telegraph.

I am so anxious for you both to come that I do nothing but think and talk of your coming. we have
