

all arranged for the Tableau, and are waiting your arrival. To have them, we will not have them unless you come.

As I have to go down the street on an errand I must close thus hoping that not much longer time shall pass away before I shall have you with me, with much love to all I remain your ever

True & Loving
Friend May.

Flora sends her love, the Capt says he will probably come up on Thursday afternoon, but you will get the telegram in time; send up to the Telegraph office on ~~Thursday~~ Wednesday afternoon.
May.