

Dear Susan,

I had just come to the conclusion
to bring the book down, (both of the boys are out) but Fanny has come, therefore I am abashed of that proposal, aren't you glad you sent him? but I could not have stayed long.

Many thanks for the request; We'll see you to night.

I am your affectionate friend
Mary.

July 3rd 1871