

Home
Oct 29th 1881

Dear Susie,

Oh I am so sick again, I attempted to go out this morning but found myself not able, I expect I will have to remain in doors for a day or so,

I thought last night when I left you, I would see you again this evening and have (it is an ~~un~~ uncomformable place when I write from.) a nice walk with you, but I know I cannot now, I will bow in submission,

I am your sincere friend Mark,

Please turn this up.