

this evening. I know you will be very happy to meet them!

As soon as I finish this I intend finishing Will's letter—have you any message for him?
Let me know.

Are you coming down to see the "Colyer" (is it spelled right) come in—now don't get disgusted at the many questions I have asked you, nor try to answer them.

As my attention is needed elsewhere I must say "Good bye"—

Your friend,

Lizzie.

Mr M. F. Rawell.
