Feb 27th 1882,

Dear Susie,

You would be unkind for me to state that I am grieved at your indisposition therefore I will not cry or express my feelings, when I saw Gory, all my hopes vanished about seeing you, but I will hope and pray that your sickness will not be long, and I will see you, now

Dear Susie please do not keep sick, I would write you a long letter if I thought I could say anything interesting, but knowing that I can not, I will not bother you,

I send you a few Oranges, ~~so~~ please do not
