

Dear Susie,

Roland told me this morning that you were sick; though I came down at 12 o'clock, but saw nothing of you.
Therefore, though you were too sick to be down; you do not know how much I have thought of you all day, and I sincerely trust that you feel better now, and that I will see you for a little while this evening. If you come down, I will not stay long, but will leave as soon as you wish;

I am your affectionate

Mother

Feb. 27th 1882

