

Dear Susan, I rec^d this book and return it to end to Mr. M.

Indeed dear Susan,
I was so much gratified to hear from you this morning, for I have been thinking, that our walk might have made your cold worse. You say you think of walking out this evening and from that I hope you have suffered no inconvenience by your soap by giving a top,

Hoping that I will see you to-morrow

I am Your affectionate
Mother
