

Dear Sasi,

I thank you dear Sasi for your kindness in answering my note. I was just thinking when Gory made his appearance, would I hear from you; of course your note was perused, with great pleasure; I had commenced to have the blues, but your note made all the gloomy clouds disappear. It is not a dreadful night, but I could enjoy it, if I were down in your parlor (and you were there) now don't put your mouth up. I know you would read something for me. You ask how Mollie is, I am so happy to say she is better. We have been busy and are you although it is such a bad night.

Good bye.

I am your aff

Mark

March 19th '92