Dear Susie, good Susie,

What a treat

Your note was to me, I was just thinking if I walked down your way, would I see you, but came to the conclusion that I would not; Susie, you can not imagine how happy I am in receiving your note, and wish I could write one in answer, that would be as pleasing to you, but that I know that I cannot do, You say that I must have found you so-so (I won't say so), after our walk, if I did I will have you so again this evening if you will do what made you so so - Look evening!
