

As I am very sleepy will bid you good night - hoping you are not worried at me for running away.

As ever yours sincerely
Lucie

Thursday 2 1/2 P.M.

Oh you feel that you might have come this morning.
I fear you think my running away was intentional and are angered thereby; well I can't help it now it is all over.

If I can impress a Courier will send this to you.
Did you receive mine of yesterday - per Ed. Burges?

Yours in haste
Lucie.
