

No. 11 I my old friend and room mate for the last four years, took his leave this morning, how sad for me, and with your sind, how forgetful I am. I hope dear Sam he will be happy, would have liked so much to have gone down, they will return in the boat this morning, they will stop (Mrs Mrs B) at the "City" Hotel"

As I did not finish the sentence about the leg, for fear of a sentence with your sind me a page or two, or three or four.
I trust you will,
So good bye,

I am your affectionate
Mark
