Annapolis Md. April 27/72

12-10 P. M.

My dear Susi,

How do you feel this morning? Well, and in a smiling mood, for really I want a long note; & then me ups. Mr. S— has not sate in an appearance this morning, & then for I will not be able to write you a long note. ~~This morning~~, as I usually do, How long, in your dear Susi, did you stay on the porch after I left, unless you felt like going in, I expect you will say, I wish I had away to punish you, like you have me, well I I had I could do it, indeed I.
