

If you cannot read this I will when I see you this evening

"Stone" 11-40 P.M. April 30/72

Dear Susie,

I am almost sure that I cannot have a run down this morning, and as I am at Leisum now I thought I would write a few lines but I know they will be as dull to you, as I feel dull to myself. I commenced a note to you this morning at 6-30, I expect while you were sleeping and had forgotten there was such a being as myself, but could not finish it (got busy) I reckon you think I commenced early to bother you, well I did but I feel so badly, and though if I could to you it would cheer me up a bit (Excuse the pencil)
