11 O'clock, A.M.

My dear good Sami,
I wonder if I will see you at 12 M. today, if I do not and you look in this (our) Post Office you will find this scrawl, but I hope I will see you.
How are you this morning, Oh! how I would like to hear it has been so long since I rec'd a note from you, how I dear Sami would you write me a little one, by little I mean two or three pages, you can write more if you choose,

Your affec. friend

Mark
