The Grand Jury being Empannelled and sworn, a charge was delivered by his Honour Judge Bland

Henry Vanlill a native of Holland and at present residing in the City of Baltimore appears in open Court here and exhibits his petition praying to be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here by the Testimony of Roderick Dorsey and Caleb Price that the said Henry Vanlill was a resident within the limits and under the Jurisdiction of the United States between the 18th day of June 1798 and the 14th day of April 1802 that he was a resident five years and upwards within and under the Jurisdiction of the United States, and one year and upwards immediately preceding this application within the State of Maryland; That during the said term of five years he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; And the said Henry Vanlill having declared on oath taken in open Court here, that he will support the Constitution and laws of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State and Sovereignty whatever and particularly all allegiance and fidelity to the King of Holland— Thereupon the Court here admits the said Henry Vanlill to become a citizen of the United States.
