

I want a ~~Hand~~ Bill in your View than demand that, for this purpose we sent you our thoughts on the subject, but you have not given us any answer whether they were satisfactory to you or useful for a Bill of that kind, & for your silence you thought yourself under a necessity of searching for which you endeavour at, by insinuating ^{that} we did not desire you any Rooms to expect our approbation or disapprobation ^{of} absolute and general negatives to that and all other Bills either of this or any other kind sent upon a ~~Form~~ and Condition no way relating at you might to the Majesty's Service, but in your approbation's restriction of the ~~scope~~ of your Constitutions We don't find on our Journals that we have returned any other Bills except those for arms and Ammunition, & for raising the £50,000, at the time with an absolute & general or any other negative, and therefore we cannot understand your meaning of our having given our negative to that & all other Bills ^{which} as to the Form and Condition, you mention to be not relative to the Majesty's Service. But ~~as~~ restriction to your Constitutions We are really at a loss to know what Form and Condition you mean. We have not insisted on any other point than the propriety of the Bill for arms and Ammunition for the Majesty's service for a ~~Term~~ time to go out of our own Offices as usually of the previous, surely you cannot (whatever you say) think that we have
