Your Committee finds that no money hath been paid into the Office in Virtue of the Act for Encouragement of able Bodied Seamen Voluntarily Inlisting in his Majesty's Service for the Expedition against Cuba Since the Report in April Session 1757, so that a Ballance of £684.14.6 Still remains due to the Office for money taken out by that Act which was to have been replaced by Publick Assessment.

Your Committee further find that there remains due to the Office by the Act Entitled an Act Granting Provisions for his Majesty's Forces for the Expedition against Canada [illegible] to be raised on Ordinary Licences, the Sum of £147.12.0¾. That there remains due for money [illegible] for his Majesty's Service, past in July 1754, which is to be replaced [illegible] Shillings on Ordinary Licences, the Duty on Servants, Madeira Wine [illegible] and the Additional Duty on Negroes £2055.7.9¼. And that there [illegible] by the Act, Entitled a Supplementary Act to the Act for the [illegible] Laws of this Province and for the Encouragement of Jonas Green [illegible] which was to be replaced by a Proportionable Assessment on the several Countys of this Province the Sum of £70.10.0 as [illegible] the following Amounts.
