having Obtained Returned and Delivered the same in the following Manner Viz.t That their House was Ready to Agree that the Words "And our Detestation of Popery and the Slavish Principles " of that Superstitious Religion" should be added thereto, thinking it a proper Amendment they being only Casually Omitted.

But that they would not Agree to have the other Words Viz.t "being " truly Sensible of that Inestimable happiness which his Majesty's " Subjects Enjoy in the Free and Full Possession of their Religion Liberties " and properties under his Most Sacred Majesty King George the " Second" to be made a part of the Association, for that being Immediately under the Government of the Right Hon.ble the Lord Baltimore the Proprietor of Maryland and thereby Labouring as they Conceive under some Agrievances; by Means of which they Apprehend themselves in some Measure deprived of that free and Full Possession of their Civil Rights which they Acknowledge they should Otherwise Enjoy from his Most Sacred Majesty in Common with all other his Faithfull Subjects —

And then Proposed to the Conferees of the Upper House the following Words Viz.t " Being perswaded that nothing under God can so " Effectually Secure to the People of Great Britain and the " Dominions thereof the perfect Enjoyment of their Religious " and Civil Rights as the Continuance of his Most Sacred " Majesty and his Royal Family upon the Throne" — to be Inserted Instead of the Words Objected to by the Lower House, To which the Conferees of the Upper House after taking the Sense of their House to Avoid further Delay or Disputes have Agreed, the Words already Mentioned to Wit, "Our Detestation of Popery " and the Slavish Principles of that Superstitious Religion" being already Agreed to be Inserted in the Association.

Upon which the Form of an Association is Drawn and Annexed hereto all which is Submitted to the Consideration of both Houses —

Thomas
Bulkeley
Philip Hammond
Rd. Harwood
Geo. Buchanan
Edwd. Tilghman