London 2d May 1764.

Gentlemen

The foregoing is Copy of what we wrote to You the 12th Inst. & sent it per Post to [redacted] in order to be put on board the [redacted] Frigate, but that Ship sailing through the Downs without stoping [redacted] prevented that Capt. Love by whom we Copy sent You a Duplicate, so that you will receive both by the same Ship. We thereon acquainted You of our expectations that an Act of Parliamens would be made this Session relating Paper Bills of Credit, which [redacted] according to Item done, and [redacted] before the Bills not Printed [redacted] and therewith Great Esteem.

Your humble Servants

Wm Hunt
Osgood Hanbury
