Gent.

Upon perusal of the Journal of our last Sent up by Mr Stoddart and Others, we find you have Omitted making the following Allowances

To the Sos the Said allowance of his rent for that of the House he lives in, tho the present Rent may be something more than 15£ / you well know the Conveniences are more beside's at the time he arrived here he could not have been otherwise Supply'd you have denyd to allow Him for Twenty three Pistoles for Transcribing The acts of Assembly now in force and Transmitting the same Agreeable to his Majesty's order in council, The Journals will make appear this Charge to be Reasonable when compared with that allowd of heretofore to Mr Charleston for for the Same Service you have Omitted to allow the Sos 1 1/2 hundredth and paid for Expreses by Him may be said to be a new charge, yet as long as the present Situation of affairs are likely to continue it will still remain a Just one you have Omitted to allow 135 £ to the late Governor Ogle for the Sales of 15 Proclamations relating to his Lordships apointment to the Inspecting Law 2/ 135 £ There is no allowance made to the Members of the Council for their attendance as a Council of State or to the Sos for his yearly salary as clerk of the Council in these we are the more Surprised / as you cannot but know their are Sworn all Laws in force which require many Services to be done by him as Clerk of the Council
